Description:

This workshop will involve making, working with and exploring calligraphic letterforms, considering image, colour, page design and layout to design a book...to stretch the imagination! It will start with drawn and painted calligraphic mark making, using various tools to develop shades of meaning, defined in form and colour. This work will become the background stage for your book, where you will weave more words, considering scale, page design and layout, to develop pages of a book.

Materials Required:

Your usual calligraphic equipment plus
Pencils (of different leads & a carpenter's pencil)
Wide range of tools such as cola, automatic, coit, steel brush, actual brush pens, balsa, etc.
Inks, watercolours, gouache, acrylics (only bring what you already have and borrow what you don't)
Cartridge and/or watercolour/print making papers (Zerkall, Saunders Waterford, Arches Velin, Canson, Fabriano, Somerset) and tracing paper
Scissors or knife and mat, glue
Needles and thread
Some suitable texts of different lengths, possibly themed in subject matter or colour interpretation.
